Plaintiff

vs.

LEE MOORE

Defendant

Case No. B9400481

Judge Ruehlman

MOTION TO INSTRUCT THE
JURY ON SUFFICIENCY
OF SINGLE MITIGATING FACTOR

Lee Moore, through his attorneys, respectfully moves this Court to supplement the O.J.I. 503.016(A)(2) "Burden" instruction with the following sentence:

"However, any one mitigating factor standing alone may be sufficient to support a sentence of life imprisonment if the aggravating circumstances do not outweigh the mitigating factors beyond a reasonable doubt."

The reasons in support of this motion are set out in the attached memorandum.

MEMORANDUM IN SUPPORT

"It is prejudicial error to refuse a requested charge that is pertinent to the case, states the law correctly, and is not covered by the general charge." State v. Hicks (1989), 43 Ohio State 3d 72, 77. The requested supplement is pertinent to the case, as it clarifies the instruction so that the jury is aware even one mitigating factor is sufficient to support a life sentence if it is not proven beyond a reasonable doubt that the aggravating circumstances outweigh that single factor.

The standard instruction falls short of providing that clarification:

2. BURDEN. The prosecutor has the burden to prove beyond a reasonable doubt that the aggravating circumstances of which the defendant was found guilty outweigh the factors in mitigation of imposing the death sentence. To outweigh means to weigh more than, to be more important than. The existence of mitigating factors does not preclude or prevent the death sentence, if the aggravating circumstances outweigh the mitigating factors.

O.J.I. 503.016(A). Addition of the requested sentence more clearly reflects the law that any one mitigating factor may be considered alone as sufficient in the weighing process. R.C. 2929.04(B).

Failure to give the supplemented instruction will deny the benefits of state and federal law to which the Defendant is entitled and undermine his rights under the Ohio and Federal Constitutions to due process, equal protection, a fair and impartial and reliable jury determination as to sentence, and to be free from cruel and unusual punishment.

Case No. B9400481

Judge Ruehlman

MOTION TO INCLUDE ALCOHOL
AND/OR DRUG IMPAIRMENT AT
THE TIME OF THE OFFENSE
AMONG LIST OF MITIGATING
FACTORS IN PENALTY PHASE
JURY INSTRUCTIONS

Lee Moore, through his attorneys, respectfully requests that this Court include the following mitigating factor in its penalty phase instructions:

Intoxication by alcohol and/or drugs is not an excuse for an offense. However, such a condition must be considered as a mitigating factor for the purpose of determining whether such intoxication adversely affected Mr. Moore's mental processes, conduct and actions and whether such intoxication deprived him of the clearness of intellect and control of himself that he would otherwise have possessed.

Modified O.J.I. Sections 411.10 and 411.11. The reasons in support of this motion are set out in the attached memorandum.

MEMORANDUM IN SUPPORT

If a jury finds that a defendant's judgment, control and clearness of intellect was impaired by drugs and/or alcohol at the time of the offense, it is legally and constitutionally relevant and is appropriately considered in mitigation under both the Federal State Constitutions and pursuant to R.C. 2929.04(B)(7).

Defense is not submitting that Mr. Moore arguably acted "under duress, coercion or strong provocation," nor does defense assert that "the defendant, because of a mental disease or defect, lacked substantial capacity to appreciate the criminality of his conduct or to conform his conduct to the requirements of the law." R.C. 2929.04(B)(2) and (B)(3), respectively. The degree of impairment need not rise to the level of duress or substantial impairment to be considered an "any other" factor "relevant to the issue of whether the defendant should be sentenced to death." R. C. 2929.04(B)(7). The United States Supreme Court has held that "any other matter" includes lesser degrees of impairment, disturbance or duress than the higher degrees defined by statute. Blystone v. Pennsylvania (1990), 494 U.S. 299, 308-309, 108 L.Ed.2d 255, 265. In a subsequent decision, the Court reversed a ruling of a trial judge who found that none of the evidence presented established a nonstatutory mitigation circumstance where there was testimony from several witnesses that the defendant was under the influence of large amount of alcohol and various drugs during the murders. Parker v. Dugger (1991), 498 U.S. ____, ____, 112 L.Ed.2d 812, 822. The Court considered such testimony to be evidence of a nonstatutory mitigating circumstance; and the failure to consider it as such denied the defendant of the individualized treatment to which he was entitled. Id.

The standard intoxication instructions at O.J.I. Sections 411.10 and 411.11 are not appropriate in the penalty phase of a capital case. The phrasing of the instructions are in the language of an affirmative defense, and they ignore the critical distinctions between affirmative defenses and mitigating factors. They would be inappropriate because they focus on the "purpose" element of the underlying offense. That element is not at issue in
